NEW YORK CITY

DIRECTORY,

COMPILED BY

H. WILSON.

VOL. LXXVII.

FOR THE YEAR ENDING

MAY 1, 1864.

"He that has much to do will do something wrong, and of that wrong must suffer the consequences; and if it were possible that he should always act rightly, yet when such numbers are to judge of his conduct, the bad will censure and obstruct him by malevolence, and the good sometimes by mistake."—SAMUEL JOHNSON.

PREFACE

TO THE SEVENTY-SEVENTH VOLUME.

Since the publication of the last volume of the Directory, the cost of all the materials which enter into its composition, as well as the price of labor, has increased full thirty per cent.; while the difficulties attending the collection and accurate compilation of the information which it contains, have been greater than ever before, owing to certain causes which have not before existed. The conscription has made many timid persons suspicious of the canvasser who has called to obtain their names, and induced them in many instances to refuse their names altogether, or to give false ones; this has greatly enlarged our list of names "received too late for insertion," and also of places where names, &c., were refused; but with greater diligence and cost than it has been found necessary to bestow on the work heretofore, the compiler of the Directory is quite confident that it will be found equally full, reliable, and accurate. To increase the price to a certain extent, or to curtail the dimensions of the work, leaving out much important information, was an absolute necessity. The extremely low price at which the Directory has heretofore been afforded to the public, left no margin for an increased cost in its production without a corresponding increase of price in its sale. The price of it to the public, however, will not be in the ratio of its cost to the publisher, but considerably under. At three dollars it will still remain the cheapest book issued from the press; and if it were not for the limited number of advertisements which it contains, it could not be afforded at anything like this price.

No one will expect to find the name of every inhabitant of the city in the Directory; but, that there may be some intelligible rule by which those may be guided who seek for information in its pages, and to prevent their disappointment in not always finding what they seek, we will give here a copy of the instructions to canvassers as to "what the Directory should contain."

I. The name;
II. The business;
III. The place, or places of business (if carrying on business on their own account in the city);
IV. The place of residence of

1st. All heads of families, male or female, residing in the city;
2d. Of all firms doing business in the city;
3d. Of the individual members of such firms (giving in connection with the names of each of such individuals, the business, place or places of business, and residence), whether residing in or out of the city;
4th. Of all persons (male or female) engaged in business in the city on their own account, their business, place or places of business, and residence, whether residing in or out of the city.

The whims, caprices, and motives of individuals who are applied to for their names, for so useful and necessary a purpose as the Directory, in withholding the required information, or in giving that which is false, are past finding out; but they cannot be in any case honorable or just. There are many persons connected with mercantile establishments, as employes or principals, who have systematically given their places of residence as in some other State or County—Connecticut, or New Jersey, Staten Island, or Westchester—while the canvassers have obtained their names at their residences in the upper parts of the city. It is probably with the view of escaping military or jury duty, or the payment of taxes, that such unworthy conduct is resorted to. But it is a fallacious expectation they indulge in; our canvassers have rarely failed to gain the information desired. We intend, next year, to give a list of those who have attempted to mislead us by furnishing false information in respect to their residences, that the public may know where the fault lies for the injury done in publishing misstatements of the kind.

We have now entered on the third year of the rebel war, and the list of names in the Directory, a sure test of the populousness and prosperity of the great commercial city of the New World, exhibits no indication of that ruin and desolation which many prophesied would prove the inevitable result of a war with the Slave States. New York still continues to grow in magnitude, in population, and in wealth. Only in one year since the Directory came into the hands of its present proprietors, has it exhibited a decrease in the population of the city, and that was in 1858–'9, the year succeeding the great commercial revulsions of 1857. The number of names in the Directory of 1863–'4 is nearly the same as that of 1862–'3; the necessity of keeping it within a certain number of pages having caused the omission of a certain class not at all required to give it as comprehensive a character as the exigencies of the community demand; but the compiler has spared neither expense or trouble to render it in all respects as nearly perfect as the means at his command and his many years experience enable him to do.

ELIE CHARLIER'S

French and English Institute

FOR YOUNG GENTLEMEN,

Boarding and Day School, Classical and Commercial,

Nos. 48 and 50 EAST TWENTY-FOURTH STREET,

(New Nos. 126 and 128.)

NEAR MADISON PARK, Between 4th & Lexington Aves.

THIS School is now in its Eighth year. Its pupils are to be found at West Point, in the Navy School, in the Army, in the Counting House, many Colleges, and Professions.

The studies pursued embrace all the studies necessary for a liberal instruction. Pupils can commence when Six years of age in the Primary Department, and continue until they are seventeen or eighteen, ready for their future profession.

German, Spanish, and French are taught by native teachers. American pupils are obliged to speak French, the only way to acquire it in a foreign country.

As heretofore, I will devote to my school all my time and energy; surrounded with excellent teachers, and all the resources presented by a large city, I will do my utmost to continue to deserve the confidence and esteem of my pupils' parents. A few pupils are received as boarders. There is but one table for pupils, teachers, and my own family.

Gymnastics, military drill, singing, and drawing are regularly taught.

Complete obedience, cheerful and prompt obedience, truth in everything, and work—such are my rules. I shall not fail to enforce them, even if I have to dismiss any pupil refusing compliance with them, or exerting an evil influence in the school. The classes in my institution may be visited at all times by the parents or guardians of the pupils.

It is a rule with my assistants and myself to accustom our pupils to use their powers of reflection and of reasoning throughout the course of their studies. We do not ask them to work beyond their powers, but require strictly the performance of their tasks; in a word, we wish them to exert themselves conscientiously.

THE ACADEMIC YEAR, 1863–64, will extend from the 16th of September to the end of June, divided, for the payments, into two sessions of twenty weeks each. All bills payable in advance, semi-annually. Pupils are charged for the entire Academic year, except new pupils, who are charged from the date of their admission to the end of the school year.

Hours of Attendance for Day Scholars.—From five minutes before 9 A.M. till 3 P.M. (with recess). In the Primary Department, pupils, if desired, may leave at 2 P.M., or even at 12 M.

A report of the attendance, deportment, and proficiency of the pupil, is sent to his parents every month, or weekly, when desired.

For all details, terms, and further information, see the Prospectus of the School.

The following gentlemen have had sons, grandsons, wards, &c., under my charge:
